Many Substantial Subscriptions For Fair Bonds Needed To Purchase Park

Clearfield Should Not Miss This Opportunity to Provide Residents Place for Recreation.

Strange as it may seem, many of the citizens of Clearfield do not as yet fully realize the great opportunity they are missing in not taking hold of the park bonds vigorously. Clearfield has been offered at a very low price a large beautiful park. Any city should jump at such a chance to provide its people for all time with so delightful a place for recreation. Any citizen should welcome such an opportunity to help purchase health, prosperity and happiness for himself, his contemporaries and all who are to follow him for years to come.

Substantial subscriptions must be made to make this possible. It is proposed to raise $16,520 to purchase the 28 acres of park lands and an additional $4000 or $5000 to properly improve them for park purposes.

One of these purposes is to provide modern Fair grounds—a worthy purpose—one that will improve agriculture, industry and business—and bring much pleasure too.

Another purpose is to provide a suitable place for district, county and local picnics and conventions. Clearfield needs such a place. It should be up-to-date and sufficiently improved to bring many desirable gatherings and excursions here.

Honest, worthy purposes are back of this proposition. A strong hearty desire to help Clearfield and the surrounding districts The plan of organization will be worked out by competent men. Your money will be well protected and you will live to be proud of the fact that you helped Clearfield make this big stride forward.

If you can subscribe for $100, $500, $1000 or $5000 worth of the bonds, now is the time to do it. Don't wait. Act now. This opportunity may never come to Clearfield again. One year—yes, one month—from today it might cost Clearfield nearly twice as much to buy the park as it will cost today.

If you desire to help this project and have not been personally interviewed by a committeeman, address the Chamber of Commerce immediately.

BOY IS CRUSHED BY TRAIN IN UNKNOWN WAY

Engineer Sees Body Lying on Tracks But Is Unable to Stop Moving Train

ACCIDENT OCCURED AT GRAHAM

While traveling along the Pennsylvania tracks towards Philipsburg yesterday afternoon a 11-year-old boy, whose name is Backhart but who is the adopted son of the Walk family residing at Graham station, met a horrible death under the wheels of a train about three hundred yards from the Graham station. The body was badly mutilated.

The exact manner of the lad's death is not known. Near the point where he was run over by the passenger train there is a sharp curve in the track. When a passenger train, traveling towards Philipsburg at 1.55 o'clock rounded the curve, the engineer saw something on the track ahead of him. The object was between the rails. He at once applied the brakes and brought his train to a stop, but not before the wheels had passed over the object, which proved to be the body of a boy. The body was horribly mutilated by the wheels of the passenger train, but was still warm when taken out from under the train by the crew.

It was apparent that the lad had been struck by a train just before the passenger train came along. A freight preceded the passenger train and the boy may have been riding between the cars and fell through to the track, or he may have been hit by the freight and thrown between the rails in which position he was noticed by the passenger engineer. No one witnessed the accident and therefore it could not be determined which train was responsible for his death.

Coroner Pollum, of DuBois, was notified in a few minutes after the accident happened, and he ordered the passenger train to place the body on the train and take it to Philipsburg. While the train was enroute to that place, he notified Haworth Brothers, undertakers there, and the remains were removed to the morgue upon the arrival of the passenger train in Philipsburg.

The dead boy rightfully belongs to the county home. He was taken from the home by the Walk family and adopted. Sometime ago domestic troubles cause a separation of the man and wife, and since that time the boy had been partly looking after himself. On Thursday evening he left the Walk home and is known to have gone as far as Wallaceton. There he spent the night in the brickyard, and yesterday started back towards Philipsburg. He had reached a point some three hundred yards from the Graham station when he was killed. It is about the same place where old man Hurley was murdered several years ago.

Coroner Pollum and District Attorney Welsh held an investigation of the accident yesterday and decided that an inquest was not necessary after gathering together the details of the boys death. No blame was placed on the railroad company.

The body will be buried this afternoon at Philipsburg on the order of the county authorities.

ALLIES LAUNCH BIG OFFENSIVE ON WEST FRONT

Both French and British Capture Important Germans Positions in Attack

GERMANS ARE REPULSED

BY ED. L. KEEN.

London, July 1.—(By United Press)—The supreme offensive of the allies began at 7:30 this morning with one of the greatest Anglo-French gains on the west front since the German retreat from the vicinity of Paris. Two hours after British troops drove forward they had captured 16 miles of German forward trenches north of the Somme, the war office announced in a bulletin. French troops struck at the same hour.

The British war office announced that the French made "equally satisfactory" gains, leaving to General Geoffrey the honor of announcing the full extent of the French successes. No statement had come from the war office early this morning, but it was believed that a full report on the French gains would be made before night.

The British attack was on a 20 mile front north of the Somme. The latest dispatches to the war office said the battle was proceeding with the utmost violence on both British and French fronts. Many prisoners have been taken but it was impossible at this hour to obtain any estimate of the number of prisoners taken or losses. It was reported that the allies' casualties have been light.

On the remainder of the British front raiding parties continued to harrass the Germans, penetrating trenches at many places involving losses and taking prisoners. The war office at 2:30 this afternoon issued a statement warning people in the interest of public safety not to travel on the continent except for important reasons. It stated that they would undergo the strictest examination under passport regulations and closest search of their persons and baggage.

The combined British and French strike began only a few hours after the Germans launched a most powerful onslaught on Verdun. Fighting continued on both the east and west banks of the Meuse. The French war office announced that on every sector the Germans were repulsed with appalling losses except on the north of the Thiamont wood.

In their largest blackest type the London Evening papers announced today that the great allied offensive has begun. Our great offensive in conjunction with our allies has started, declared the Evening News. The allies are now striking hard on all fronts, announced the British Standard. Britain and France have begun the offensive, announced the Evening Star. Germany cannot transfer troops from the west. She has already drawn largely on her reserves for the Verdun struggle.

British troops captured Serre Montauvan it was semi-officially announced this afernoon. The Anglo French troops are fighting at Mametz and Contalmaison, part of which the French hold. French troops have captured Curlu and Savier wood and have advanced about one and one-fifth miles.

Misses Sarah and Kathryn Foster Porter Stewart and Paul Kress, house guests of Miss Margaret Wrigley, left today for their home in Pittsburgh.

A practical joke evidently gets its name from its near relation to a practicing physician.

Once a kicker, always a kicker. The fellow who was complaining about cold weather two weeks ago is still complaining but with a different kick.

It has been suggested that the Chautauqua grounds be selected in a quieter location. Good suggestion. The puffing of engines on the railroad adjacent to the old grounds make a great deal of confusion.

Don't get sore if the small boy makes a little noise the next three or four days remember the old days when fire crackers were scarce and the few sticks of dynamite that "dad" had left from blasting stumps mysteriously disappeared.

A week ago today a crowd of hoboes stealing a ride on the train near Oneida, N. Y., thoughtlessly turned a valve that set the emergency air brakes, derailing the train and throwing it onto another track directly in front of a passenger train. Happily the passenger train was brought to a standstill with no damage done. Clearfield citizens will do well to swat the hobo with the fly. Both have cost Clearfield county thousands of dollars this year.

The sun gives heat to us all—but the man who wants to use the sun to start a fire he uses a burning glass to concentrate its rays. National advertising benefits every dealer carrying goods that are advertised by creating demand for certain articles and every buyer through bringing forcibly to his attention the good things there are in life for him, but the retailer who wants to use national advertising has to use a concentrator to focus its rays on his own store. That concentrator is local advertising. Exceptionally alluring advertisements appear in this issue.

LEEDS MAY NOT BE BRIDE OF GREEK NOBLE

Friends Take Little Stock in Report From London.

New York, June 30.—Friends in the city of Mrs. William B. Leeds, (sometimes referred to as "the $30,000,000 widow") take little stock in the report emanating from London that she is to wed Prince Christopher of Greece, the youngest brother of King Constantine. It is recalled that she has refused several more tempting offers than that of the Greek prince and has consistently maintained that she has no desire to get married again. Some years ago Prince Louis Napoleon Bonaparte, brother of the French pretender, was an unsuccessful suitor for the hand of the immensely wealthy American widow and it is also known that had she accepted she might have become the wife of Count Helie deTalleyrand-Perigord, a cousin of the Duc de Talleyrand, who married Anna Gould.

Mrs. Leeds is the daughter of William C. Stewart, a Cleveland millionaire. Her husband, William Bateman Leeds, died in Paris in 1908. For some years he had been a leading figure in the American financial and railroad worlds. He was known as the tin-plate king and was a former president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad. At his death he left to his widow a fortune variously estimated at from $15,000,000 to $30,000,000.

Since becoming a widow Mrs Leeds has passed the most of her time abroad, where she was introduced to society by Lady Arthur Paget During the years of her residence in London and Paris she has been courted and idolized by the marriageable title-holders of Europe. Helie, the famous artist, has declared that she possesses ninety-eight of the one hundred essential points of beauty.

Today's Geographic Study of The Great European War Zone

Czernowitz, in which the war news reading public has had little interest for many months, is again taking its place in the headlines of the day, owing to the Russian drive along the Austrian east front The Bukowina capital is the subject of today's war geographic bulletin of the National Geographic Society, issued at Washington, which says

"With a population of nearly 90,000 Czernowitz, the most easterly city of importance in the Austro-Hungarian empire, lies only a few miles west of the point where the boundary lines of the Austrian crown land of Bukowina, the kingdom of Roumania, and the Russian province of Bessarabia converge It is situated on an elevation overlooking the Pruth River, which rises in the Carpathians and after a course of 500 miles enters the lower Danube near Galatz The Pruth is navigable only as far as Jassy, which is nearly two hundred miles below Czernowitz.

"Czernowitz owes its present-day importance to the severance of the province of Bukowina from Turkey and its incorporation as a part of Austria in 1775 Up to that time the town was an unimportant village, but when it became the capital of the new crownland, which has an area half as large as the state of New Jersey, with a population of three quarters of a million, its future was assured At the time of the outbreak of the present war it was a thriving commercial center with splendid modern public buildings and was especially notable for the number and variety of its ecclesiastical structures, the Greek Orthodox, Greek Catholic, Roman Catholic, Armenian Catholic, Armenian Orthodox, Old Believers', Orthodox and Reform Jews and Protestant faiths being represented.

"While the modernity of the most conspicuous edifices robs Czernowitz of the quaintness and medieval atmosphere possessed by many cities of Central Europe compensating grace is to be found by the traveler in the wonderfully picturesque costumes of the peasants on market Mondays when the Poles, Ruthenians, Roumanians, Germans, Magyars, Jews, Armenians, Bulgarian, Gypsie Turks and Czechs appear in their national dress, rivalling the rainbow in the variety of hues employed They astound the ear with an amazing babel of tongues.

"Among the distinctive features of this city are its 'Houses' or clubs, which are the centers of the various national interests Each House reflects the characteristics of its members both in the kind of entertainment and hospitality which it affords and in its decorations and architecture When he steps over the threshold into his club the member, be he Pole, German, Roumanian or whatnot, feels that 'this is his own, his native land.'

"Before the war Czernowitz was engaged in the manufacture of machinery and oils, while its trade was largely confined to wool, wood, and spirituous liquors. Across the river four miles to the north, is the Jewish town of Sadagora, famous for its cattle fairs.

"Czernowitz lies 165 miles by rail southeast of the Galician stronghold of Lemberg 420 miles east of Vienna and 335 miles due north of the Roumanian capital, Bucharest."

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, became sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidenys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

THE SAME CAR FOR LESS MONEY

BEAR in mind that the Maxwell car has not been changed.

It is standardized. It will not be changed except in minor respects—where we see opportunities from time to time to make refinements and additional improvements.

The new price of $595 is only made possible by our greatly increased production and the fact that we specialize in only one automobile.

Every Maxwell car is identically the same as every other Maxwell car.

Last year the Maxwell car represented a big value. Many thousands of satisfied Maxwell owners are the evidence of that.

But this year—at the reduced price of $595—the Maxwell stands out as the one big automobile value of all time.

Nothing like it has ever been offered for the money.

Just consider, complete electrical equipment for starting and lighting; speedometer; demountable rims; one-man top; rain-vision windshield;—and every other device for the comfort and convenience of the owner.

Every thing that the expensive cars have. And good looks, comfort and economy of operation—that some of the others haven't.

There has been a nation-wide demand for Maxwell cars at the former price; there will be an overwhelming demand for these cars at the new price of $595.

And this proves that the American public has admitted and verified our unqualified claim that the

Maxwell Motor Car is the Big, Outstanding Motor Car Value in the Country Today.

WHAT THE MAXWELL PRICE INCLUDES

Long-stroke, high speed, four-cylinder motor; 5 to 50 miles on high gear, 20 to 25 miles to the gallon of gasoline (average).

Irreversible steering gear; automatic motor lubrication by splash and pump; 600 to 1,000 miles per gallon of oil

Thermo-syphon cooling.

A running in-oil clutch, so smooth as to make the driving of a novice as free from gear-clashing and from sudden jerks as that of a seasoned driver.

Tall narrow, racing type Maxwell-made radiator.

Maxwell made axles—I-beam front and semi-floating rear, highest quality heat-treated alloyed steel

Gasoline tank in cowl; short, accessible gas line to carburetor.

Maxwell-made stream line body, well finished in every detail. Deep, comfortable upholstery.

30 x 3½ tires all around, non-skid on rear; average life 8,000 to 10,000 miles. Demountable rims.

Tire carrier at rear, with extra rim.

Substantial, Maxwell-made crowned fenders and linoleum covered running boards.

Electric starter, electric lights, electric horn.

High-Tension Magneto, an independent source of ignition.

One man Top with quick-adjustable curtains—storm proof.

Rain vision, adjustable, ventilating windshield.

High grade speedometer.

The Maxwell Touring Car is a full five-passenger car Every Maxwell model seats comfortably the number of passengers which it is usual to carry.

Compare these Maxwell features with those of cars selling at higher prices.

This announcement will be read by hundreds of automobile dealers as well as prospective retail buyers. To those dealers who wish to know if there is any open territory, we will say that Maxwell sales contracts for 1916-17 are being signed now by our traveling salesmen. There will be some changes—particularly in the allotment of territory. Therefore, interested dealers, wherever located, should write us now.

ON THE SCREEN

"THE GILDED SPIDER"

At the Opera House, Monday Evening, July 3.

While cruising on his yacht on the Mediterranean, Cyrus Kirkham, a dissolute American millionaire, sees a dancing girl whom he covets, kidnaps and takes her on board his yacht. To escape his unwelcome attentions the girl jumps overboard and is drowned.

Her husband determines to be avenged and with his baby daughter and his mother comes to America Giovanni is a molder of miniature, cheap statuettes, and as he passes through the streets selling his wares, he keeps constant lookout for Kirkham. He finally locates him at his home.

Kirkham has married a society woman who devotes her time to charity work and has founded a mission house in the Italian quarter. Here frequently comes Giovanni's mother and daughter, Elisa. There is among Kirkham's dissolute companions, Burton Armitage, who has befriended Paul Winston, a struggling young artist. Winston has found upon the streets, an Italian girl who has posed for him. When the picture was finished, he lost all trace of her. While calling upon Mrs. Kirkham at the mission house, he finds his lost model in Giovanni's daughter and prevails upon her to resume sittings for him Mrs. Kirkham gives to Elisa's grandmother her own card as assurance that she will be responsible for the care of Elisa. This card Rosa, Elisa's grandmother takes home to Giovanni who upon seeing it, determines upon the form which his vengeance shall take. He hires a gang of thugs to kidnap Mrs Kirkham while he goes to Kirkham to demand ransom The plan is foiled by the arrival of Winston at the mansion house, just at the time Mrs. Kirkham is being kidnapped. He follows and calls the police. They capture the gang and liberate Mrs. Kirkham

Meanwhile Elisa has been enticed by trickery to Kirkham's house where a party given by Kirkham to his dissolute companions is going on Giovanni arrives at the Kirkham house during the progress of this party When Kirkham beholds Giovanni, the shock of fright so affects his heart that he drops dead.

Giovanni now wildly aroused for further vengeance, dashes upstairs to where the party is being held on the gaily lighted roof. Here Giovanni beholds his daughter dancing, and the vivid recollection of her mother's tragic death quite unbalances his mind and before he can be prevented Giovanni jumps from the roof and is killed These two sudden deaths clear the way for a happy ending to the story.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulhpur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color date back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

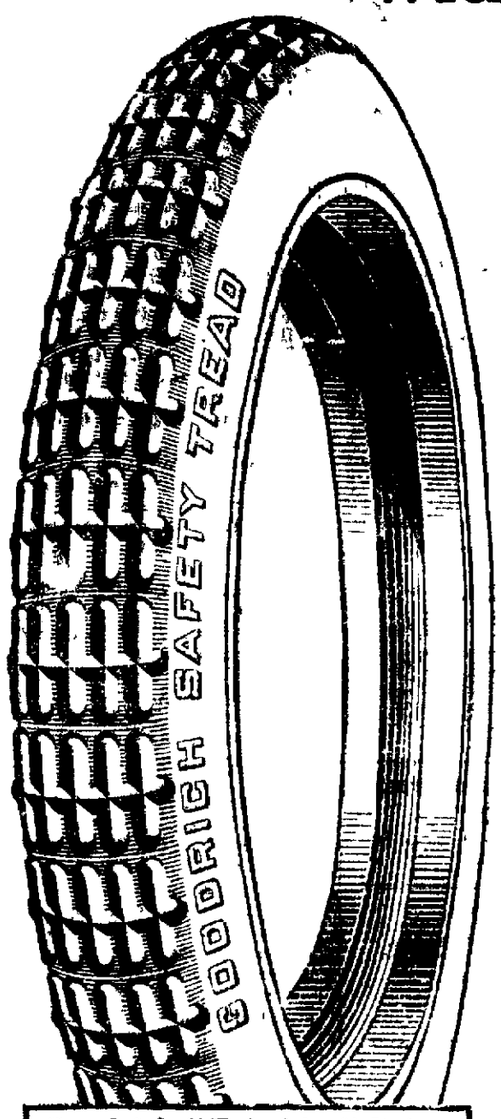
Why Spend your Money,— "with a Spade"?



THRIFT does not mean Penurious-ness! Its first principle consists in getting FULL VALUE for each Dollar of Income expended.

Getting less is not complimentary to the intelligence of even a Millionaire.

Being liberal and generous, in affairs where it is proper and Deliberate to be so, differs widely from being thriftless, that is less and careless in buying things, on a business basis.

A habit of "Jumping at Conclusions," instead of Thinking out these Conclusions, costs many a man a lifetime of Un-success.

* * *

TOO many Americans indolently act upon the shallow theory that an article "must be" WORTH more, merely because it Costs more.

They are thus taxed a heavy price all through life, for such an indolent habit of Thought.

They work hard, industriously and intelligently, to acquire money.

Then (for their personal needs) they "Spend it with a Spade."

Is this complimentary to the Judgment of even the Wealthiest?

Do people become Wealthy who acquire the careless HABIT of "Spending Money," instead of intelligent, thoughtful BUYING with it?

* * *

MONEY cannot make BETTER Fabric Tires,—at ANY price,—than Goodrich 47-Year Experience, $300,000,000 lbs. Purchasing-Power, and Deliberate Intention, are now producing.

No Rubber Concern in the world could afford to offer the low Fair-List Prices here quoted, on Fabric Tires (for such HIGH quality) without the enormous Goodrich VOLUME, which so reduces Cost as to make these Low Prices possible.

When, therefore, you pay MORE than these Goodrich Fair-List prices for ANY Fabric Tire, you are NOT getting "better" Tires.

Test out Goodrich Tires, and see!

Many Substantial Subscriptions For Fair Bonds Needed To Purchase Park

Clearfield Should Not Miss This Opportunity to Provide Residents Place for Recreation.

Strange as it may seem, many of the citizens of Clearfield do not as yet fully realize the great opportunity they are missing in not taking hold of the park bonds vigorously. Clearfield has been offered at a very low price a large beautiful park. Any city should jump at such a chance to provide its people for all time with so delightful a place for recreation. Any citizen should welcome such an opportunity to help purchase health, prosperity and happiness for himself, his contemporaries and all who are to follow him for years to come.

Substantial subscriptions must be made to make this possible. It is proposed to raise $16,520 to purchase the 28 acres of park lands and an additional $4000 or $5000 to properly improve them for park purposes.

One of these purposes is to provide modern Fair grounds—a worthy purpose—one that will improve agriculture, industry and business—and bring much pleasure too.

Another purpose is to provide a suitable place for district, county and local picnics and conventions. Clearfield needs such a place. It should be up-to-date and sufficiently improved to bring many desirable gatherings and excursions here.

Honest, worthy purposes are back of this proposition. A strong hearty desire to help Clearfield and the surrounding districts The plan of organization will be worked out by competent men. Your money will be well protected and you will live to be proud of the fact that you helped Clearfield make this big stride forward.

If you can subscribe for $100, $500, $1000 or $5000 worth of the bonds, now is the time to do it. Don't wait. Act now. This opportunity may never come to Clearfield again. One year—yes, one month—from today it might cost Clearfield nearly twice as much to buy the park as it will cost today.

If you desire to help this project and have not been personally interviewed by a committeeman, address the Chamber of Commerce immediately.

BOY IS CRUSHED BY TRAIN IN UNKNOWN WAY

Engineer Sees Body Lying on Tracks But Is Unable to Stop Moving Train

ACCIDENT OCCURED AT GRAHAM

While traveling along the Pennsylvania tracks towards Philipsburg yesterday afternoon a 11-year-old boy, whose name is Backhart but who is the adopted son of the Walk family residing at Graham station, met a horrible death under the wheels of a train about three hundred yards from the Graham station. The body was badly mutilated.

The exact manner of the lad's death is not known. Near the point where he was run over by the passenger train there is a sharp curve in the track. When a passenger train, traveling towards Philipsburg at 1.55 o'clock rounded the curve, the engineer saw something on the track ahead of him. The object was between the rails. He at once applied the brakes and brought his train to a stop, but not before the wheels had passed over the object, which proved to be the body of a boy. The body was horribly mutilated by the wheels of the passenger train, but was still warm when taken out from under the train by the crew.

It was apparent that the lad had been struck by a train just before the passenger train came along. A freight preceded the passenger train and the boy may have been riding between the cars and fell through to the track, or he may have been hit by the freight and thrown between the rails in which position he was noticed by the passenger engineer. No one witnessed the accident and therefore it could not be determined which train was responsible for his death.

Coroner Pollum, of DuBois, was notified in a few minutes after the accident happened, and he ordered the passenger train to place the body on the train and take it to Philipsburg. While the train was enroute to that place, he notified Haworth Brothers, undertakers there, and the remains were removed to the morgue upon the arrival of the passenger train in Philipsburg.

The dead boy rightfully belongs to the county home. He was taken from the home by the Walk family and adopted. Sometime ago domestic troubles cause a separation of the man and wife, and since that time the boy had been partly looking after himself. On Thursday evening he left the Walk home and is known to have gone as far as Wallaceton. There he spent the night in the brickyard, and yesterday started back towards Philipsburg. He had reached a point some three hundred yards from the Graham station when he was killed. It is about the same place where old man Hurley was murdered several years ago.

Coroner Pollum and District Attorney Welsh held an investigation of the accident yesterday and decided that an inquest was not necessary after gathering together the details of the boys death. No blame was placed on the railroad company.

The body will be buried this afternoon at Philipsburg on the order of the county authorities.

ALLIES LAUNCH BIG OFFENSIVE ON WEST FRONT

Both French and British Capture Important Germans Positions in Attack

GERMANS ARE REPULSED

BY ED. L. KEEN.

London, July 1.—(By United Press)—The supreme offensive of the allies began at 7:30 this morning with one of the greatest Anglo-French gains on the west front since the German retreat from the vicinity of Paris. Two hours after British troops drove forward they had captured 16 miles of German forward trenches north of the Somme, the war office announced in a bulletin. French troops struck at the same hour.

The British war office announced that the French made "equally satisfactory" gains, leaving to General Geoffrey the honor of announcing the full extent of the French successes. No statement had come from the war office early this morning, but it was believed that a full report on the French gains would be made before night.

The British attack was on a 20 mile front north of the Somme. The latest dispatches to the war office said the battle was proceeding with the utmost violence on both British and French fronts. Many prisoners have been taken but it was impossible at this hour to obtain any estimate of the number of prisoners taken or losses. It was reported that the allies' casualties have been light.

On the remainder of the British front raiding parties continued to harrass the Germans, penetrating trenches at many places involving losses and taking prisoners. The war office at 2:30 this afternoon issued a statement warning people in the interest of public safety not to travel on the continent except for important reasons. It stated that they would undergo the strictest examination under passport regulations and closest search of their persons and baggage.

The combined British and French strike began only a few hours after the Germans launched a most powerful onslaught on Verdun. Fighting continued on both the east and west banks of the Meuse. The French war office announced that on every sector the Germans were repulsed with appalling losses except on the north of the Thiamont wood.

In their largest blackest type the London Evening papers announced today that the great allied offensive has begun. Our great offensive in conjunction with our allies has started, declared the Evening News. The allies are now striking hard on all fronts, announced the British Standard. Britain and France have begun the offensive, announced the Evening Star. Germany cannot transfer troops from the west. She has already drawn largely on her reserves for the Verdun struggle.

British troops captured Serre Montauvan it was semi-officially announced this afernoon. The Anglo French troops are fighting at Mametz and Contalmaison, part of which the French hold. French troops have captured Curlu and Savier wood and have advanced about one and one-fifth miles.

Misses Sarah and Kathryn Foster Porter Stewart and Paul Kress, house guests of Miss Margaret Wrigley, left today for their home in Pittsburgh.

A practical joke evidently gets its name from its near relation to a practicing physician.

Once a kicker, always a kicker. The fellow who was complaining about cold weather two weeks ago is still complaining but with a different kick.

It has been suggested that the Chautauqua grounds be selected in a quieter location. Good suggestion. The puffing of engines on the railroad adjacent to the old grounds make a great deal of confusion.

Don't get sore if the small boy makes a little noise the next three or four days remember the old days when fire crackers were scarce and the few sticks of dynamite that "dad" had left from blasting stumps mysteriously disappeared.

A week ago today a crowd of hoboes stealing a ride on the train near Oneida, N. Y., thoughtlessly turned a valve that set the emergency air brakes, derailing the train and throwing it onto another track directly in front of a passenger train. Happily the passenger train was brought to a standstill with no damage done. Clearfield citizens will do well to swat the hobo with the fly. Both have cost Clearfield county thousands of dollars this year.

The sun gives heat to us all—but the man who wants to use the sun to start a fire he uses a burning glass to concentrate its rays. National advertising benefits every dealer carrying goods that are advertised by creating demand for certain articles and every buyer through bringing forcibly to his attention the good things there are in life for him, but the retailer who wants to use national advertising has to use a concentrator to focus its rays on his own store. That concentrator is local advertising. Exceptionally alluring advertisements appear in this issue.

LEEDS MAY NOT BE BRIDE OF GREEK NOBLE

Friends Take Little Stock in Report From London.

New York, June 30.—Friends in the city of Mrs. William B. Leeds, (sometimes referred to as "the $30,000,000 widow") take little stock in the report emanating from London that she is to wed Prince Christopher of Greece, the youngest brother of King Constantine. It is recalled that she has refused several more tempting offers than that of the Greek prince and has consistently maintained that she has no desire to get married again. Some years ago Prince Louis Napoleon Bonaparte, brother of the French pretender, was an unsuccessful suitor for the hand of the immensely wealthy American widow and it is also known that had she accepted she might have become the wife of Count Helie deTalleyrand-Perigord, a cousin of the Duc de Talleyrand, who married Anna Gould.

Mrs. Leeds is the daughter of William C. Stewart, a Cleveland millionaire. Her husband, William Bateman Leeds, died in Paris in 1908. For some years he had been a leading figure in the American financial and railroad worlds. He was known as the tin-plate king and was a former president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad. At his death he left to his widow a fortune variously estimated at from $15,000,000 to $30,000,000.

Since becoming a widow Mrs Leeds has passed the most of her time abroad, where she was introduced to society by Lady Arthur Paget During the years of her residence in London and Paris she has been courted and idolized by the marriageable title-holders of Europe. Helie, the famous artist, has declared that she possesses ninety-eight of the one hundred essential points of beauty.

Today's Geographic Study of The Great European War Zone

Czernowitz, in which the war news reading public has had little interest for many months, is again taking its place in the headlines of the day, owing to the Russian drive along the Austrian east front The Bukowina capital is the subject of today's war geographic bulletin of the National Geographic Society, issued at Washington, which says

"With a population of nearly 90,000 Czernowitz, the most easterly city of importance in the Austro-Hungarian empire, lies only a few miles west of the point where the boundary lines of the Austrian crown land of Bukowina, the kingdom of Roumania, and the Russian province of Bessarabia converge It is situated on an elevation overlooking the Pruth River, which rises in the Carpathians and after a course of 500 miles enters the lower Danube near Galatz The Pruth is navigable only as far as Jassy, which is nearly two hundred miles below Czernowitz.

"Czernowitz owes its present-day importance to the severance of the province of Bukowina from Turkey and its incorporation as a part of Austria in 1775 Up to that time the town was an unimportant village, but when it became the capital of the new crownland, which has an area half as large as the state of New Jersey, with a population of three quarters of a million, its future was assured At the time of the outbreak of the present war it was a thriving commercial center with splendid modern public buildings and was especially notable for the number and variety of its ecclesiastical structures, the Greek Orthodox, Greek Catholic, Roman Catholic, Armenian Catholic, Armenian Orthodox, Old Believers', Orthodox and Reform Jews and Protestant faiths being represented.

"While the modernity of the most conspicuous edifices robs Czernowitz of the quaintness and medieval atmosphere possessed by many cities of Central Europe compensating grace is to be found by the traveler in the wonderfully picturesque costumes of the peasants on market Mondays when the Poles, Ruthenians, Roumanians, Germans, Magyars, Jews, Armenians, Bulgarian, Gypsies Turks and Czechs appear in their national dress, rivalling the rainbow in the variety of hues employed They astound the ear with an amazing babel of tongues.

"Among the distinctive features of this city are its 'Houses' or clubs, which are the centers of the various national interests Each House reflects the characteristics of its members both in the kind of entertainment and hospitality which it affords and in its decorations and architecture When he steps over the threshold into his club the member, be he Pole, German, Roumanian or whatnot, feels that 'this is his own, his native land.'

"Before the war Czernowitz was engaged in the manufacture of machinery and oils, while its trade was largely confined to wool, wood, and spirituous liquors. Across the river four miles to the north, is the Jewish town of Sadagora, famous for its cattle fairs.

"Czernowitz lies 165 miles by rail southeast of the Galician stronghold of Lemberg 420 miles east of Vienna and 335 miles due north of the Roumanian capital, Bucharest."

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, became sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidenys feel like lumps of lead, your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

BASE BALL GOSSIP.

It begins to look as if Chicago retired from the championship business when the Feds withered.

A year ago the White Sox were tearing along at the front in the American league race and Cleveland was running backwards.

Bobby Robinson's Brooklyn Bobbies have whaled the tar out of Pat Moran's Philly Phils this season to the tune of nine victories out of twelve games played.

Detroit and Cleveland are the centers of the world's peace activities Whenever the Tigers and Indians clash, Sweeney is tossed the peace stuff.

Perhaps if the Giants had taken their time instead of rushing up within striking distance of the top, they might have been better prepared to stick around awhile.

Winning his first three games, gave Pitcher Marty O'Toole a fine start with the Omhaa Western league team.

Coach Fred Mitchell has rejoined the Braves after finishing the work of developing one of the best Harvard nine in years.

Milwaukee officials are making war on the base ball pool, one of the greatest separators of a bug and his money ever invented.

Larry Lajoie must have overheard some one say he was an old timer the other day, for he promptly went out and stole four bases in a double header

The difference between Manager "Smiling Bill" Donovan of the Yankees and "Wild Bill" Donovan, manager of the Yankees, is the difference between the Yankee's winning and losing.

Being "hitless wonders" proved such a good thing for the White Sox that the Red Sox have entered the class and are doing well at it.

It isn't Sisler's fault that the Browns are not traveling faster That bird can play any position in the yard and play it right

Fighting their way to the top of the Western league and then hurling back home to the cave has kept the Topeka team busy this season

The "bush" leagues will have to start early for their big show trial this season or the college pastimers will have copped all the rookie berths

The movies have lost several thrillers this season such as 'Slim' Sallee tearing up his Cardinal contract Johnny Evers telling John McGraw his opinion of the Giants and then manager and a picture of Old Fox Griffith after the Athletics had taken a game from Washington

BEAR in mind that the Maxwell car has not been changed.

It is standardized. It will not be changed except in minor respects—where we see opportunities from time to time to make refinements and additional improvements.

The new price of $595 is only made possible by our greatly increased production and the fact that we specialize in only one automobile.

Every Maxwell car is identically the same as every other Maxwell car.

Last year the Maxwell car represented a big value. Many thousands of satisfied Maxwell owners are the evidence of that.

But this year—at the reduced price of $595—the Maxwell stands out as the one big automobile value of all time.

Nothing like it has ever been offered for the money.

Just consider, complete electrical equipment for starting and lighting; speedometer; demountable rims; one-man top; rain-vision windshield;—and every other device for the comfort and convenience of the owner.

Every thing that the expensive cars have. And good looks, comfort and economy of operation—that some of the others haven't.

There has been a nation-wide demand for Maxwell cars at the former price; there will be an overwhelming demand for these cars at the new price of $595.

And this proves that the American public has admitted and verified our unqualified claim that the

Maxwell Motor Car is the Big, Outstanding Motor Car Value in the Country Today.

WHAT THE MAXWELL PRICE INCLUDES

Long-stroke, high speed, four-cylinder motor; 5 to 50 miles on high gear, 20 to 25 miles to the gallon of gasoline (average).

Irreversible steering gear; automatic motor lubrication by splash and pump; 600 to 1,000 miles per gallon of oil

Thermo-syphon cooling.

A running in-oil clutch, so smooth as to make the driving of a novice as free from gear-clashing and from sudden jerks as that of a seasoned driver.

Tall narrow, racing type Maxwell-made radiator.

Maxwell made axles—I-beam front and semi-floating rear, highest quality heat-treated alloyed steel

Gasoline tank in cowl; short, accessible gas line to carburetor.

Maxwell-made stream line body, well finished in every detail. Deep, comfortable upholstery.

30 x 3½ tires all around, non-skid on rear; average life 8,000 to 10,000 miles. Demountable rims.

Tire carrier at rear, with extra rim.

Substantial, Maxwell-made crowned fenders and linoleum covered running boards.

Electric starter, electric lights, electric horn.

High-Tension Magneto, an independent source of ignition.

One man Top with quick-adjustable curtains—storm proof.

Rain vision, adjustable, ventilating windshield.

High grade speedometer.

The Maxwell Touring Car is a full five-passenger car Every Maxwell model seats comfortably the number of passengers which it is usual to carry.

Compare these Maxwell features with those of cars selling at higher prices.

This announcement will be read by hundreds of automobile dealers as well as prospective retail buyers. To those dealers who wish to know if there is any open territory, we will say that Maxwell sales contracts for 1916-17 are being signed now by our traveling salesmen. There will be some changes—particularly in the allotment of territory. Therefore, interested dealers, wherever located, should write us now.

ON THE SCREEN

"THE GILDED SPIDER"

At the Opera House, Monday Evening, July 3.

While cruising on his yacht on the Mediterranean, Cyrus Kirkham, a dissolute American millionaire, sees a dancing girl whom he covets, kidnaps and takes her on board his yacht. To escape his unwelcome attentions the girl jumps overboard and is drowned.

Her husband determines to be avenged and with his baby daughter and his mother comes to America Giovanni is a molder of miniature, cheap statuettes, and as he passes through the streets selling his wares, he keeps constant lookout for Kirkham. He finally locates him at his home.

Kirkham has married a society woman who devotes her time to charity work and has founded a mission house in the Italian quarter. Here frequently comes Giovanni's mother and daughter, Elisa. There is among Kirkham's dissolute companions, Burton Armitage, who has befriended Paul Winston, a struggling young artist. Winston has found upon the streets, an Italian girl who has posed for him. When the picture was finished, he lost all trace of her. While calling upon Mrs. Kirkham at the mission house, he finds his lost model in Giovanni's daughter and prevails upon her to resume sittings for him Mrs. Kirkham gives to Elisa's grandmother her own card as assurance that she will be responsible for the care of Elisa. This card Rosa, Elisa's grandmother takes home to Giovanni who upon seeing it, determines upon the form which his vengeance shall take. He hires a gang of thugs to kidnap Mrs Kirkham while he goes to Kirkham to demand ransom The plan is foiled by the arrival of Winston at the mansion house, just at the time Mrs. Kirkham is being kidnapped. He follows and calls the police. They capture the gang and liberate Mrs. Kirkham

Meanwhile Elisa has been enticed by trickery to Kirkham's house where a party given by Kirkham to his dissolute companions is going on Giovanni arrives at the Kirkham house during the progress of this party When Kirkham beholds Giovanni, the shock of fright so affects his heart that he drops dead.

Giovanni now wildly aroused for further vengeance, dashes upstairs to where the party is being held on the gaily lighted roof. Here Giovanni beholds his daughter dancing, and the vivid recollection of her mother's tragic death quite unbalances his mind and before he can be prevented Giovanni jumps from the roof and is killed These two sudden deaths clear the way for a happy ending to the story.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulhpur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color date back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

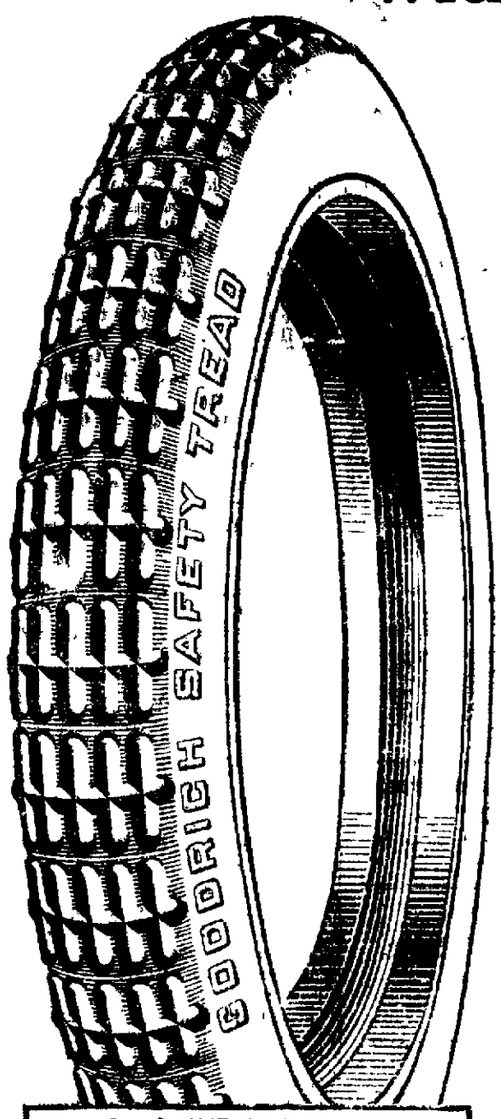
Why Spend your Money,— "with a Spade"?



THRIFT does not mean Penurious-ness! Its first principle consists in getting FULL VALUE for each Dollar of Income expended.

Getting less is not complimentary to the intelligence of even a Millionaire.

Being liberal and generous, in affairs where it is proper and Deliberate to be so, differs widely from being thriftless, that is less and careless in buying things, on a business basis.

A habit of "Jumping at Conclusions," Instead of Thinking out these Conclusions, costs many a man a lifetime of Un-success.

* * *

TOO many Americans indolently act upon the shallow theory that an article "must be" WORTH more, merely because it Costs more.

They are thus taxed a heavy price all through life, for such an indolent habit of Thought.

They work hard, industriously and intelligently, to acquire money.

Then (for their personal needs) they "Spend it with a Spade."

Is this complimentary to the Judgment of even the Wealthiest?

Do people become Wealthy who acquire the careless HABIT of "Spending Money," instead of intelligent, thoughtful BUYING with it?

* * *

MONEY cannot make BETTER Fabric Tires,—at ANY price,—than Goodrich 47-Year Experience, $300,000,000 lbs. Purchasing-Power, and Deliberate Intention, are now producing.

No Rubber Concern in the world could afford to offer the low Fair-List Prices here quoted, on Fabric Tires (for such HIGH quality) without the enormous Goodrich VOLUME, which so reduces Cost as to make these Low Prices possible.

When, therefore, you pay MORE than these Goodrich Fair-List prices for ANY Fabric Tire, you are NOT getting "better" Tires.

Test out Goodrich Tires, and see!
